```
In [2]: #kwargs parameter that will pack all arguments into a dictionary useful so that a function can accept a varying
        def hello(kwargs):
            print('hello '+kwargs['first']+' '+kwargs['last'])
        hello(first='aziz',middle='sultan',last='alq')
```

```
hello aziz alq
```

```
In [5]: #but if we want print the full name
        def hello(kwargs):
            print('hello')
            for key,value in kwargs.items():
                print(value,end=' ')

        hello(first='aziz',middle='sultan',last='alq')
```

```
hello
aziz sultan alq
```

Loading [MathJax]/jax/output/CommonHTML/fonts/TeX/fontdata.js